Guide to the Colorado River in the Grand Canyon $33.00

By Tom Martin & Duwain Whitis (6th Edition / Waterproof)

River Maps printed with USGS 7.5' topographic maps as the background at the original map scale of 2,000 feet per inch. Each map shows campsite locations, rapids, scout points, river miles and other points of interest. The accompanying text describes all campsites on the park inventory (and some extras), with campsite pull-in information, geological, botanical and historical points of interest.

The Colorado River in Grand Canyon $26.00

By Larry Stevens

The Colorado River in Grand Canyon: A River Runner's Map and Guide to its Natural and Human History, by Larry Stevens, is designed for running the river, for scribbling notes about rapids, camps or unexpected sightings and events, and to help inform or remind us of the vast temporal and spatial scope of Grand Canyon.

Belknap's Waterproof Grand Canyon River Guide – 2017 Edition $25.00

Mile by mile color Waterproof Guide to the Colorado River through Grand Canyon with shaded relief/topographic maps, and special sections on history, archaeology, geology, natural history and photography. Updated yearly with campsites and new USGS Mileage Points: Geology section features step-by-step easy to understand description of how the Canyon was formed as well as color photos from river level with formations clearly labeled for easy identification.

Colorado River Briefs for a Trip Through the Grand Canyon $16.00

By Linda Lou Lindemann

The Grand Canyon is filled with history and events which river people talk about over and over. It is time that the facts about names, canyons and events along the way were documented and put to the written word before they are lost or retold to the point that dates and facts are lost. River mile briefs with lavishly illustrated descriptions of the major rapids. A must have for all Grand Canyon boatmen and historians.

Day Hikes from the River, 4th Edition $22.00

By Tom Martin

Aimed at river runners who want to get the most hiking out of their river trip, these hikes may take an hour or be from sunrise to sunset. Useful for planning your itinerary and for stuffing in your fanny pack.
